

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

OLGA VELAZQUEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

NISSAN NORTH AMERICA, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:25-cv-00246-CSK

ORDER FOR JOINT SCHEDULING
REPORT

This action has been assigned to Magistrate Judge Chi Soo Kim upon the consent of all parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c). (ECF No. 8.) Defendant Nissan North America, Inc. has answered Plaintiff Olga Velazquez's Complaint. (ECF No. 1-2.) There are no other defendants named in the Complaint.¹ (See ECF No. 1-1.) Thus, this case is ripe for scheduling.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16 and Local Rule 240, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Within 21 days of this order, the parties shall confer regarding the filing of a Joint Status Report addressing the relevant portions of Local Rule 240(a) to facilitate the entry of a pretrial scheduling order. In addition to the requirements of Local

¹ Plaintiff also names Defendants Does 1-10 in the Complaint. See ECF No. 1-1 at 3-4.

1 Rule 240(a), the parties shall also address the following in their Joint Status
2 Report:

- 3 a) The parties' estimated length of trial, and whether the case will be tried to a 4 jury or to the bench;
 - 5 b) Whether Defendants Does 1-10 will be dismissed by Plaintiff, and if not,
6 when Plaintiff will identify and amend to name additional defendants
7 currently identified as Doe Defendants;
 - 8 c) In the proposed schedule presented pursuant to Local Rule 240(a)(11),
9 include proposed dates for the filing of a Joint Mid-Discovery Statement,
10 which should occur at a mid-point during the fact discovery time period;
11 and the final pretrial conference, which should occur at least four weeks
12 before the proposed trial date. The parties' proposed trial date should
13 occur approximately three months after the dispositive motion hearing 14 deadline; and
 - 15 d) In the proposed schedule for expert disclosures presented pursuant to 16 Local Rule 240(a)(11), include proposed dates for initial expert disclosures
17 and rebuttal expert disclosures.
- 18 2. An initial pretrial scheduling conference shall be held on Tuesday, July 15, 2025
19 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom 25.
 - 20 3. The parties are reminded of the Local Rule 240(b) requirement to submit a 21 proposed discovery plan within fourteen (14) days of the parties' discovery
22 conference.
 - 23 4. The parties are directed to Judge Kim's Civil Standing Orders, which are located 24 on the Court's website at www.caed.uscourts.gov (select "Judges," then select 25 Magistrate Judge Chi Soo Kim). The parties should take note of the page limits for 26 civil motions and discovery joint statements. The parties are responsible for 27 knowing and complying with the Court's standing orders.
 - 28 5. The parties are further reminded of their continuing duty to notify the Court

1 immediately of any settlement or other disposition. See Local Rule 160.
